

LOOK WHO'S RINGING!

The Raleigh Ringers is an internationally acclaimed, advanced community handbell choir based in Raleigh, North Carolina. Founded in 1990, the Raleigh Ringers have been dazzling concert audiences with unique interpretations of sacred, secular and popular music ever since. We are thrilled to have the Raleigh Ringers present our opening concert.

The Bellissima Ringers handbell quartet was formed in 1997 and collectively represents about 80 years of handbell experience. They are one of Canada's most advanced handbell small ensembles.

Susan Carscadden-Mifsud, founder and director of Bellissima, has a passion for handbells. They are the focus of her professional life as well as her avocation. She is one of Canada's most accomplished handbell soloists and a noted conductor. Most recently, she was one of the conductors at the 13th International Handbell Symposium in Orlando, FL.
